CALL FOR PAPERS

APAMB Singapore Conference

in collaboration with the School of Human Development and Social Services, and the SIM University (UniSIM), Singapore

March 5-8, 2007

Deadline First Submission: November 4, 2006

SIM University (UniSIM) and the Asia-Pacific Academy of Management and Business (APAMB) are inviting scholars and practitioners to submit papers for presentation. This conference offers an opportunity for academics and professionals in the areas of management and business, particularly in the Asia-Pacific region, to come together in an interactive, knowledge-sharing environment.

The conference focuses on discussions mainly covering the following topics of interest but is not limited to: Organizational Studies, Entrepreneurship, Leadership, Technology Management, Innovation and Technology, Globalization, Outsourcing, Cross-Cultural Issues.

Authors should submit an abstract of the paper or to submit “in progress” theoretical or empirical papers and case studies, or submit proposals describing their presentation. Extended abstracts (3 to 4 pages) describing your paper are acceptable in lieu of a full paper. All submissions of abstracts (not exceeding 2 pages) or the completed paper (not exceeding 15 pages) should be contained in a single file (MS Word) and sent to the Program Committee as an email attachment, and accompanied by the Abstract Submission Form. Check website for guidelines and details: www.apamb.org.

The Program Committee advice is to submit abstracts by November 4, 2006 for first consideration to ensure inclusion in the conference program and proceedings.
